BRADLEY FREEMAN

FOR HEAD OF FILMMAKING

Goals:

- Create lots of filmmaking opportunities for our members throughout the year.
- Create documentaries as well as short films.
- Collaborate with other LSTV departments and other societies to create new opportunities.
- Support members during the full process of creating their films.
- Organise frequent workshops and training sessions to learn about filmmaking and the industry.

Why me?

- I study Film, Photography and Media so I have the knowledge and practical experience to support our members in Filmmaking.
- I have created 4 short films and 2 short documentaries in the past year, each with quick turnaround times so am confident in my ability to consistently produce content.
- I am very passionate about film and love working with others to create fun and interesting projects!
- I have been a member of LSTV since I joined university in 2021 and would love the opportunity to give something back.
