

Nina Rongeard

for social sec

Hi! I'm Nina, a second-year English and Film Studies student and I would love to be your next social sec!

my experience with LSTV

After spending all of first year saying I was going to join LSTV, I finally did this year, and honestly it's one of the best decisions I've ever made! LSTV has given me opportunities I probably would've never had anywhere else. I've been on many different projects, including two NaSTA shortlisted projects and one Bronze NaSTA winning short film. I've also filmed dance shows with commercial, Christie Cup, and Varsity. Most importantly, I've been to pretty much every social event this society has put on this year!

why me?

- My priority will be inclusivity, I know how difficult it can be for new members to join in so I want to make sure everyone feels welcome!
- I would love to organise more sober, casual socials (similar to the Traitors social we had earlier this year) so that everyone can join in as much as possible (I would love to do a craft night!)
- I know some people on the Film Soc committee, so i would love to organise something with them!
- I love a good night out, so of course I will be organising some throughout the year
- I will make sure all social events are accessible to all and that everyone feels comfortable at all times (I know how overwhelming nights out can be for certain people so don't hesitate to come to me if you need any help)
- I'm always be open to suggestions, so if you have any ideas, please share!
- I love taking photos, so any social will be well documented!
- I overshare when I drink so know you won't embarrass yourself in front of me
- (if you rembember anything I said that night no you don't)
