

Introduction

Hi, I'm Kate Matthews and am in my 2nd year at Leeds, studying English Literature and Theatre Studies. Having joined the club this year, I have really enjoyed the opportunities that the boat club has given me, from teaching me to row to taking me to competitions up and down the country. Though I have been rowing for less than a year, I have felt so welcomed into the boat club and aim to provide the same warm welcome to next year's new rowers. I believe the addition of the role of Events Coordinator will aid all rowers in the society, working collaboratively with the captains in making sure transport and race documents are organised well in advance for stress free trips to competitions. I think I would be an asset to this role due to my organisation and communication skills, which will be ideal for liaising with all members of the boat club.

For Rowing Events
Coordinator

Aims

Training Camps

- To have pencilled in all training camps by Christmas, publishing the dates for everyone.
- Reaching out to alumni and other contacts at boat clubs in London in order to reintroduce a Tideway training weekend.
- To keep all training camps affordable for all members of the boat club.

Organisation for races

- To organise and plan logistics for all races to allow for the to run smoothly.
- To have race documents sent out to everyone by the Monday before each competition.
- To reach out to drivers well in advance so that transport will be organised by the Monday of race week.

Communication

- To liaise with captains and coaches for lists of those requiring transport and accommodation.
- To ensure communication is clear and timely to the whole club, making certain that plans are in place quickly and clearly.
