- Group-specific safety commitment statement
- Collab awareness event/activity with another student group
- Resource guide for members
- Discussion session

Task 1:

Describe the task and how you approached it

The first task was a discussion session with two of the Sasha student ambassador (Martha and Megan) who had previously helped deliver the committee training so we were really pleased to have them there with the rest of the society members.

I made sure that we had completed the committee training first so that those committee members who could attend the discussion session could be involved and active

What was the response to this?

Very positive as we had around 40-50 society members which is is funny more than we have play most weeks so that was very nice to see

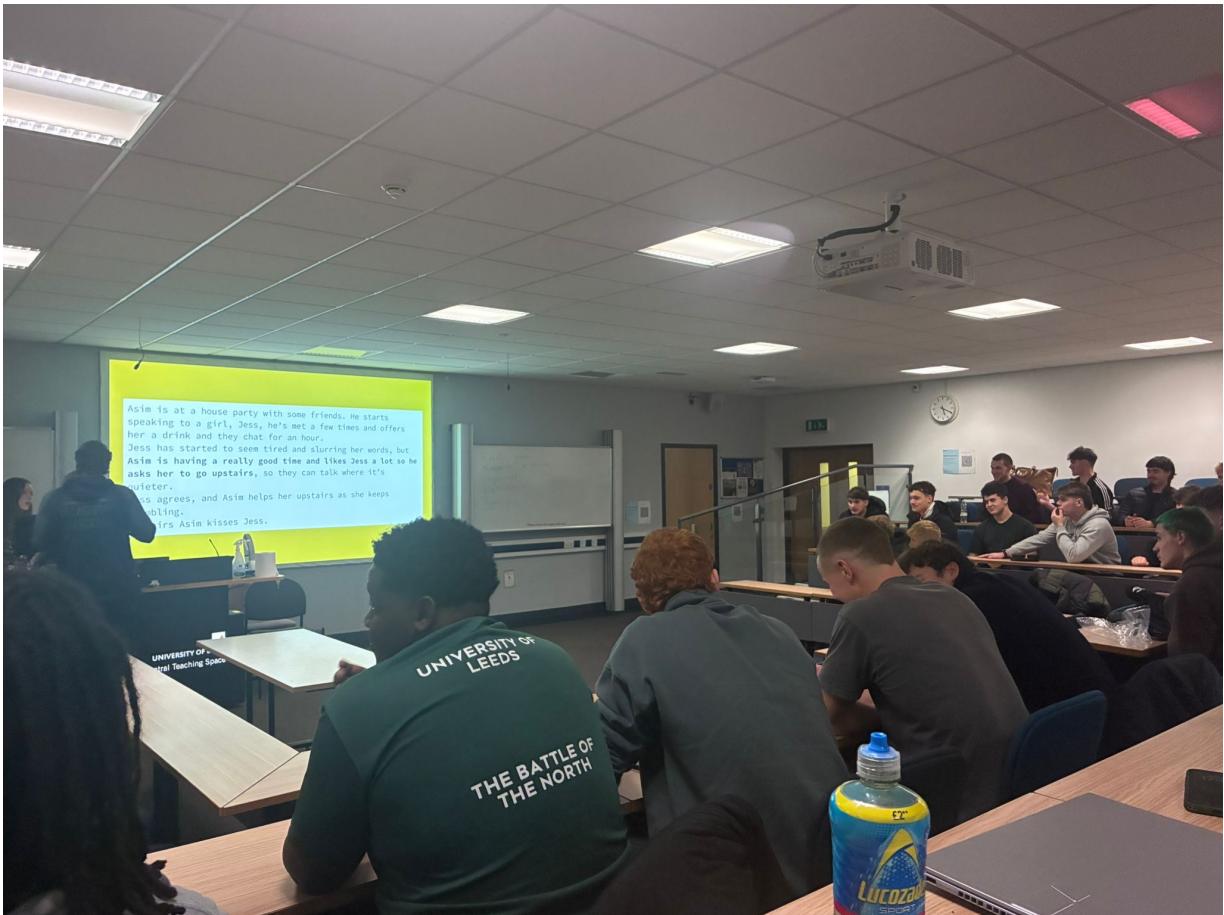

It was a collection of 1st years, 2nd years, and final years.

What is the impact of this action (predicted or already realised)

I think it has opened a lot of people's eyes as to what to be aware of and what not to tolerate rather than just letting certain things go (rape jokes for example)

Task 2:

Describe the task and how you approached it

We then created an interactive Instagram reel about what attendees had learnt from the previous discussion.

I recorded it after training so managed to get quite a few of the boys but gave them some thinking time so they were not completely put on the spot

What was the response to this?

Great response from club members and Luu representatives/activities team

What is the impact of this action (predicted or already realised)

As social media spreads so quickly, it was a great way to use our growing platform to shed light on what we had learnt and how others may be able to benefit from those learnings

Task 3: Describe the task and how you approached it A resource guide for the members of LURUFC who are on the facebook
What was the response to this? No immediate response as of yet as it went up a few days ago but with time I feel it will be an important guide for the members and even their friends who are not sure where to go for help.
What is the impact of this action (predicted or already realised) As previously mentioned, it has only just been put up on the main and the freshers Facebook group which altogether have one and a half thousand members on those two groups so our reach is enormous to current students and even alumni.
