

Appendix C - Safe Space Policy

Many people who interact with the society are expected to suffer from PTSD, to ensure the environment is a safe space the following categories have been laid out (for ease of reading any communication/document/event is hereby referred to as the item):

- Circle
 - This item is not expected to trigger any particular individual. This does not mean it will not as triggers can be very random to the extent of particular colours. However it does not explicitly mention any particular form of abuse. Furthermore once made aware of an issue it must make all reasonable effort to amend the item.
 - Examples
 - Fundraisers
 - AGM and EGM
- Square
 - The item mentions a particular form of abuse or may for any other reason be considered triggering for a significant number of people. Members should only proceed if they feel comfortable processing the item at this point in time
 - Examples
 - Debate with law societies
- Triangle
 - The item is expected to be triggering for the vast majority of people. It is expected to cause distress and whilst we will provide what support we can. Do not interact if you do not feel comfortable doing so.
 - Examples
 - Reclaim the night march
