PUBLICITY OFFICER

As your publicity officer, I will strive to unite the society, maintaining a vast outreach and extensive social network. I am organised, approachable and will ensure efficient communication via email and social media. Through the regular English society Sunday emails I will endeavour to be a reliable and friendly voice promoting the society as a whole.

Some of the best friendships that I have made at Uni grew from English society, and I would love to take a more active role and ensure the same experience for all! :)

Thank you for considering me as your next Publicity Officer 2022/3!
