Going local, national, international with a wide variety of region-based opportunities. Emphasis on commercial awareness and skills enhancement through workshops, presentations and talks to bring application success. Advice on personal branding, online presence and networking to lead you to the legal market.

Law Careers Guide – a comprehensive collection of opportunities for law and non-law students across all degree stages to be ready for September 2022 and be shared with LawSoc. Continuous updates on solicitor and barrister opportunities. Supply of resources, e.g. cover letter templates, plus tips on recruitment processes and alternative legal roles. You name it, the Guide has it all brought to you at once!

Application reviews – a convenient and accessible on-demand application review form and a video interview review form to keep running throughout 2022/23.

Why me?

A diligent team player with a genuine interest in and experience with early legal careers. My proactivity, innovative mindset, organisation and reliability will deliver a memorable Careers Dinner and make me your trusted point of contact to guide you with confidence through recruitment and get you where you deserve to be!
