

Jam for Communications!

*My friends used to call me PR Jam for a reason...

Why I'd be good for the role:

- I was the editor of my sixth form magazine and had to do a LOT of communication via email
- I've acted in two TG shows this year (Collective Rage and Almost, Maine) and I'm really passionate about the society
 - I worked in my local newspaper for a summer so I have experience in press

About me:

- I'm a first year English Literature with Creative Writing student
- I got involved in TG as soon as I could, have worked with some really talented people this year and am so excited to continue :)

Ideas for the role:

- Sending weekly emails about upcoming TG events so no one misses out
- Encouraging more cross-society communication the reason is I sent a lot of emails in Sixth Form*
