

Vote Amy for Competition Captain!

Who am I?

- I'm Amy Peacock and I am in first year studying medicinal chemistry
- I've been doing gymnastics for 13 years, competing at regional and national level
- I am a BG qualified women's and men's coach and judge
- I currently coach at Nile Wilson gymnastics club

Why should you vote for me?

- I have wide knowledge of women's and men's gymnastics at all levels
- I'm fab at putting routines together and choreographing floor artistry
- I've done many competitions as a gymnast, coach and judge- I know how comps are set up and organised
- I'm friendly and approachable- if you have a question about an upcoming comp or anything to do with gymnastics, I'll be happy to answer!

I promise I will.....

- Do my best to get as many people involved at comps whatever their level
- Make sure to send out all competition information in plenty of time before comp day so everyone feels confident and well- prepared to compete
- Organise competition entries, making sure all documents are correctly completed
- I'll be there for you in training, helping you sort out your routines ready for comps, ensuring your skills hit the criteria
