

Vote Serena Bailey for POLIS President

A bit about me!

- I study International Relations
- I'm a 2nd year student
- I'm an avid tap dancer and creative crocheter in my free time, when I'm not at POLISSOC events!

My Mission:

- Improve diversity and inclusion, provide a wide range of speakers, and encourage a diverse membership of POLIS Society.
- Encourage academic and social engagement, providing a wide range of society events to attend. Provide a less intimidating environment for newcomers to make friends and interact with POLIS peers.
- Publicise politics related networking events and provide more opportunities for professional development.
- Solicit sponsorships and society partners to provide POLIS members with unique opportunities, and increase the society's capacity to put on great events.
- Increase collaborative partnerships with other universities and institutions, creating a more engaging experience for members.
- Increase publicity of POLIS events and social media and create an established platform for feedback.
