A photograph of two young women in a large, ornate ballroom. The woman on the left is wearing a white, form-fitting dress and is holding a glass. The woman on the right is wearing a black, form-fitting dress and is also holding a glass. They are both smiling and looking towards the camera. The background shows a large room with a high, arched ceiling, chandeliers, and several round tables set with white cloths and chairs. The room is dimly lit, with warm light from the chandeliers and cooler blue light from a stage area in the background.
