About me:

 I am a 3rd year BSc International Business and Marketing student, currently on a placement year at L'Oréal.

 I am involved with a range of different societies at Leeds, including Kickboxing, Cricket and LUBS.

 My aim in this role is to make YOU as employable as possible when you leave University!

What Will I do in this role for you...

 Organise networking events with industry professionals and market-leading brands.

 Run upskilling sessions to master your LinkedIn, CV, job applications and more.

 Share the secrets to working 'smarter not harder' when applying for jobs.

 Set up an new inbox and run drop-in sessions to answer career and application queries.

 Improve collaboration with placement students & graduates to offer you advice based on first-hand experience.

Why you should vote for me:

 I know the recruitment process from both sides, reaching numerous final stage interviews and hiring new interns at L'Oréal.

 I have first-hand experience to share from successfully securing work experience, internships and jobs.

 I'm dedicated to getting you the career experience you need, having faced all the same struggles personally.

 I understand the importance of a work-life balance, wanting to prepare for your career whilst enjoying your time at University.
