

VOTE AMY FOR MERCH SEC!

Amy Davis, first year LLB law student

About Me

- First year LLB law student
- I am a keen sports player and am a member of the University of Leeds netball society
- I also enjoy music, listening to a wide range of music and playing both the piano and violin!
- Love both a night out and a quiet night in!

Experience and qualities for the role

- Strong organisational and communication skills - I planned and arranged my school leavers dinner including the venue, decoration, balloon hire, menu and seating plan
- Creative - helped to design the netball kit for the school netball tour
- Leadership and teamwork skills - demonstrated through captaincy of my home netball club for 5 years
- Inclusive - ready and willing to include everyone's preferences and cater for all

Ideas for the role

- Designing new merchandise for the Law Society which caters to everyone's taste so that everyone has the chance to represent the society
- Finding merch at a reasonable price so that it is accessible to everyone
- including a diverse range of products such as hoodies, water bottles, tracksuit bottoms and more!
- Incorporating and including other people's ideas and preferences through polls and voting systems to please the majority
